

NY. STAGE LETTER

Lincoln in Ford Theater Just Before the Assassination—A Scene in "The Birth of a Nation"

New York, April 26. — Two-dollar movies!

Shades of Shakespeare!

A photoplay — a flickering film—must be given first place among the notable theatrical productions of New York's spring season.

That marvelous photo spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," has jumped right to the center of the legitimate